ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

The above-named defendant appeared in custody before the undersigned on July 17, 2008, for a detention hearing. Assistant United States Attorney David Jennings was present representing the government and Jonathan Cooper, was present on behalf of the defendant. The government moved for detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e) at the arraignment held on July 7, 2008. Counsel for the defendant announced that the defendant would waive a detention hearing reserving his right to request a hearing at a later date. The defendant executed the appropriate Waiver of Detention Hearing.

Accordingly, the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his/her designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
